

MARIO GOMEZ - PRESIDENT

Mario Gomez was born in Cuba and came to California in 1967.

Mario began his insurance career in 1976 in Los Angeles with Chubb Insurance Company starting in the file room. He was then promoted to underwriting assistant.

In 1977 he moved to Insurance the Insurance Company of North America as an underwriter trainee and completed the INA underwriting school program. He then assumed duties as a Workers Compensation Underwriter in INA's Los Angeles office, and then was promoted to Senior Underwriter in 1980.

In 1983 Mario was hired as the supervising underwriter for Argonaut Insurance Company in Los Angeles, California. He stayed there until October of 1985 until he moved to the Surplus Lines side with Montgomery and Collins as well as A.J. Renner.

In April of 1988 Mario joined Lemac & Associates Los Angeles office as a Senior broker and later as a Vice President until June of 2006.

On June 4, 2006 , Mario Gomez partnered with Rick Bass of Bass and Associates Inc. and together they formed Maverick Commercial Insurance Services, an independently owned wholesale broker in California.
